To:

Department of Justice
FEDERAL COURTHOUSE
450 GOLDEN GATE AVENUE
SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94102

Please be known that Edward Matthew Dorsaneo<sup>1</sup> hereby withdraws (1) his petition<sup>2</sup> for change of status for Tetyana Dorsaneo (Alien # A205555182)<sup>3</sup>, and withdraws (2) his supporting affidavit of support<sup>4</sup> pursuant to applicable law<sup>5</sup>. Mr. Dorsaneo is informed and believes that there has been no final decision regarding his petition as the conditions thereto related to the bona-fides of the marriage have not yet been removed by the USCIS<sup>6</sup> as proscribed by the Immigration Marriage Fraud Amendments of 1986<sup>7</sup>.

<sup>3</sup> Tetyana Dorsaneo, Alien # A205555182, date of birth 26-June-1984, Ukraine, or any of her known aliases, including but not limited to Tetyana Semenivna Shkoda, Tetyana Pavlyuchyuk and variants thereof.

<sup>5</sup> 8 CFR §§ 205.1(a)(3)(i)(A) – “Automatic Revocation - Upon written notice of withdrawal filed by the petitioner or self-petitioner with any officer of the Service who is authorized to grant or deny petitions” (emphasis added), 8 CFR §205.1(a)(3)(i)(D) - “Automatic Revocation - Upon the legal termination of the marriage when a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States has petitioned to accord his or her spouse immediate relative or family-sponsored preference immigrant classification under section 201(b) or section 203(a)(2) of the Act”, 8 CFR § 205.1(a)(3)(i)(J) – “(J) Upon legal termination of the petitioner’s status as an alien admitted for lawful permanent residence in the United States unless the petitioner became a United States citizen” 8 CFR § 213a.2(f)(2) – “Withdrawal of Form I-864 or Form I-864A”

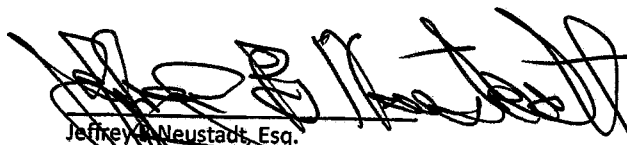

<sup>6</sup> See attached Exhibit 3 – USCIS Forms I-797 dated June 2, 2017; April 7, 2017; January 12, 2017; and February 1, 2016.

<sup>7</sup> PL 99-639 “Sec 2. DETERRING IMMIGRATION-RELATED MARRIAGE FRAUD”, as codified in 8 U.S.C. §1186a.

The basis for this withdrawal is the short duration of their marriage entered into on September 24, 2013<sup>8</sup>. Mr. Dorsaneo is informed and believes that the sponsored immigrant entered into the marriage under false pretenses, by misrepresenting her true intentions both to him and to agents of the United States<sup>9</sup>. Further evidence thereof is the sworn testimony of a Police Officer attached hereto<sup>10</sup>. The conjugal relationship of the parties ended immediately after the petition was signed<sup>11</sup>, mere weeks after the marriage certificate was issued, and the parties formally separated on December 21, 2013. Mr. Dorsaneo filed for divorce 90 days after the marriage<sup>12</sup>. Their Final Judgment for Dissolution was entered by the Superior Court on May 20, 2014<sup>13</sup>.

Mr. Dorsaneo is informed and believes that Tetyana failed to inform the USCIS of this change in her status until she made application for removal of conditions nearly two years later<sup>14</sup>. The USCIS was obligated at that time to terminate her conditional residence status<sup>15</sup>.

Dated this 13th day of November 2017.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)
- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

1. Becomes a U.S. citizen;
2. Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
3. No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
4. Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
5. Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

A205555182
EAC1608452341(CRI89)

USCIS has reviewed your Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence (Form I-751). The supporting evidence does not establish that extreme hardship would result if you were removed from the United States.

You submitted:

- identification documents and a copy of your permanent resident card;
- divorce decree;
- self affidavit describing your relationship with your former spouse; and
- 2015 tax returns.

Extreme Hardship

Submit evidence that extreme hardship would result if you were removed from the United States. In determining extreme hardship, USCIS will consider circumstances occurring only during the period of your conditional permanent resident status. The evidence you submit must directly relate to you.

- What are your needs concerning medical and social service available in the United States?
- Do you have any serious illness that cannot be treated in your country?
- How does your age and the time you have been in the United States affect the possibility of deportation?
- How old are your children, and how long have they lived in the United States?
- How would deportation affect your children?
- Would you and your children be able to readjust to life in your country?
- Can you obtain employment to support yourself and your children?
- Do you have family in the United States? If so, what is their status in the United States, and how long have they lived here? Do you still have family in your homeland? If so, how are they related to you?
- How would your child's education be disrupted?
- What kind of psychological impact would deportation have on you and your children?

NOTE: The following do not constitute extreme hardship for immigration purposes:

- Financial hardship, including the loss of one's job,
- Difficulty adjusting to a foreign culture or environment, even after several years in the United States,
- The loss of your standard of living or economic deprivation which may result due to your deportation.

You may send any other relevant documentation not already mentioned. Please do not send copies of documents previously submitted.

Your supporting evidence does not sufficiently establish that you and your former spouse entered the marriage in good faith and continued to share a life together until your legal separation.

You submitted:

- e mails exchanged with your former spouse;
- photographs of you and your former spouse; and
- your divorce decree.

Mark Adams
1275 4th Street #723
Santa Rosa, CA 95404

My name is Mark Adams and I live in Santa Rosa, CA. I have known Ed Dorsaneo since the early 1990's. We met while he was working at the Cotati Police Department and I was working as an officer with the Rohnert Park Police Dept.

My first recollection of Ed talking about Tanya occurred in 2011 while he was working in Afghanistan. He had apparently met her while vacationing and said that he was going to see where their relationship was going.

When Ed discontinued his overseas position, I recall that he went through significant effort and expense to bring Tanya to the United States after they became engaged late in his deployment. We spoke regularly throughout the early months after he arrival. It was only after about 30 days that he confided in me that things were not going well and that Tanya seemed like a different person from the one he had met in Kiev. While they were apart, they spoke for hours on Skype every day and now that she was with him, she was very withdrawn and showed little to no affection. As the weeks wore on, he made it clear that she was very unwilling to adapt to life here and wanted to move to San Francisco. This seemed unlikely since Ed had both a business and property in Sonoma County.

I actually only met Tanya on one occasion since she generally refused to accompany Ed to social gatherings they were both invited to. The evening that I met Tanya in person was related to a Christmas party I attended with my girlfriend Allison. Ed and Tanya were also present. During that evening, we had drinks at a local bar restaurant called Stormy's. I overheard Tanya say Allison that she had married Ed to come to the US. I did not comment on or make further inquiry because we had all been drinking and I was not sure if she was joking or serious. I also didn't want to cause any further issues between Ed and her because she certainly did not seem happy accept when Ed was not directly with her. She also made several snide comments in his presence which he dismissed without reaction. It was only after Ed divorced her did this statement seem relevant.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

NOTICE: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse under the other spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay on death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a spouse as beneficiary of the other spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. However, some changes may require the agreement of your spouse or a court order (see Family Code sections 231–235).

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.
